

Dev Shetty

President and CEO, Fura Gems

The political leader I admire the most and why?

Ex PM Atal Bihari Vajpayee and Manmohan Singh. I always liked the way Vajpayee used to make his point and Manmohan Singh because of his work during 1991 economic crisis. Internationally, I like the ex British PM David Cameron for his style of functioning.

The business leader I admire the most and why?

Narayan Murthy because of his business principles and Mark Zuckerberg because of whatever he has achieved in such a young age.

A book or a movie I would like to recommend to others and why?

I am a big Bollywood and Hollywood fan. I loved hindi movie Sholay and watch all Tom Hank movies.

Had I not been in the jewellery business I would have been?

Doctor

My biggest test as a decision-maker?

How I turn around the Coscuez Emerald Mine and bring it in the world map.

My favourite holiday destination?

New York and Kashmir

Favourite cuisine?

Thai

My social media hang-out zone – Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest?

I am not very active on social media

My de-stress mantra?

Meditation

My business principle and success mantra?

To be honest in what you do

One thing I would love to do in a different way?

I want to spend more time with my family

My hobby?

Watching movies and playing Cricket

What is more important, business ethics or business profit?

Business ethics

Learnings from the trade after being in the industry for all these years?

Commitment and word of mouth are the most important things in business.